PRINCE ALBERT, O. T. 23, 1922.

ELECTION IN WALLACE.

The electoral division of Wallace is to have a contest for the seat in the North West Legislative Assembly, rendered vacant by the death of Mr. Joel Rossman, representative for that district, and also a member of the New Representative Committee. There are two candidates in the field. Mr. McNutt has issued his address which quite agrees with the views taken by us in matters relating to the present Executive of which Mr. Cayley is leader, and of North West affairs in general. If elected, he will not want of confidence in Mr. Cayley's administration until he is convinced that such a vote is in the interests of the country, but will give the present Executive an honest and unbiased support. He also declared that he will be an independent voter in the Assembly that he will support all good measures matter from whom they may emanate. He declares himself in accord with the immigration policy advocated by Mr. Cayley and his colleagues, believing that it is a move in the right direction and will lead to the rapid settlement of this vast and fertile country. He also favors the just administration of the liquor license law, and approved of the appropriation of the sum of $1,200 to assist the License Commissioner in the proper enforcement of the law. The Mowat School Bill, which we regret had not been passed, and which we are informed, the Cayley Executive has accepted, meets with the approval of Mr. McNutt, with the exception of the system of paying grants, which he believes favors town schools to the detriment of the rural schools, and would endeavor to have such a basis of paying grants changed. He is also strongly in favor of the adoption of a national school system, and would advocate that members be allowed to assist schools out of their road and bridge allotments. Mr. McNutt touches briefly but very clearly upon the various matters that are likely to engage the attention of the members of the North West Legislature, and there is no doubt, if elected, Wallace will again have a clear-headed and able representative.

THE NEW MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR.

The Cabinet is slowly undergoing changes. Mr. T. M. Daly, the member for Selkirk, Manitoba, has been appointed Minister of the Interior. We congratulate the Government upon the appointment of a western man, and a gentleman so well qualified to succeed Hon. Mr. Dewdney, in such an important department as the interior. The Hon. Mr. Daly is a strong advocate of a rigorous immigration policy, and at the head of that important department which has been added to the duties of Minister of Interior will, no doubt, render invaluable services in forwarding the rapid settlement of Manitoba and the North West. By the Government appointing the Hon. Mr. Daly, our right to Cabinet representation has been fully recognized and preserved. The appointment is a popular one, and we believe will give entire satisfaction to the people of Manitoba and the North West. Mr. Daly is a young man, in prime of life, full of vigor, and thoroughly acquainted with the wants and requirements of this western country, and we feel confident that the various matters that will come under his various departments will be carefully and wisely managed. We congratulate the Hon. Mr. Daly upon his appointment, and augur for him a most successful career for him as a member of the Federal Government.

THE HON. MR. DEWDNEY.

The many friends of the Hon. Mr. Dewdney will be glad to learn that he has been appointed Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia. For many years Mr. Dewdney has been closely identified with the interests of the North West Territories, having occupied the gubernatorial chair, during which time he had almost the entire management of the Territorial affairs, and gave such satisfaction in the discharge of his duties as Lieutenant Governor, that upon the expiration of his term as Governor, was appointed Minister of the Interior and twice returned by Western Assembly as its representative. Mr. Dewdney is not strange to British Columbia, having been for a number of years identified with its interests. We have no doubt that Mr. Dewdney in ascending the gubernatorial chair of our fair western province will administer the affairs of that province with the same equity and justice that have characterized his administration of affairs in the past. It is pleasing to know that Mr. Dewdney's retirement from the Cabinet was entirely voluntary and contrary to the wishes of his colleagues.

THE LORNE EXHIBITION.

To the Editor of The Times.

Sir,—Referring to leader in The Times of 19th inst. re Prince Albert Exhibition, as a party feeling a deep interest in the welfare of that district, I beg to supplement your remarks and say that as a party having a good general knowledge of the Saskatchewan country, the live stock did not at all represent the superior quality of those to be found in the district—which are excelled by none—and possibly only equalled by those shown at the Carrot River Exhibition on the 24th ult., where every department was well represented, carried out in the most perfect order, and in which I agree with your correspondent was A. 1. It is unfortunately too true that there seems some serious misunderstanding among the farmers and storekeepers regarding the management of this Exhibition, and which no doubt is disastrous to both. Could this misunderstanding be explained to his honor Judge McGuire, who might in his capacity as a private citizen consent to make such suggestions as would throw "oil on the troubled waters." Failing this, I would respectfully suggest that these two exhibitions be amalgamated; that several prizes for articles of less benefit for the good of the country be struck out; that the Exhibition be held alternately at each place, commencing next autumn with the town, and somewhat more advanced in the season in order to procure a better average sample of grain; that the prizes be also amalgamated and fixed at an amount which would make it worth while farmers coming from their business bringing their stock a distance to compete. If some such arrangement cannot be come to, it would be better in the interests of immigration to discontinue the Lorne Exhibition. This should be regretted, as apart from the fact—which might be deplored with far financial reasons—there was agricultural produce exhibited at Prince Albert of vital importance in building up a nation, more especially roots, grasses and butter, which would possibly hold their own at the World's Fair against all comers. Nothing can be more disheartening than such an exhibition, and were I less informed as to the true value of the great resources of the district, would have gone away in disgust. I must already be apparent to the Prince Albert people that such a demonstration, and seeing things as they are, have a better effect on the mind of an incoming immigrant than all the printed matter which could be put on circulation and which generally leads up to "immigration is getting too much." I make these suggestions in the interest of the large body of bona fide practical farmer immigrants that ever set foot in this direction—for whom no local aid is sought, unaided by the Dominion and entirely at my own expense. So far, I like the climate and agricultural resources, but the winter and other matters which I hope may turn out equally favorable have yet to be considered. As a large old country farmer cut out by foreign competition, I wish to see matters improved. "And if a better system than, import it freely or make use of mine."

A GIANTIC ALMANAC.

There is a wonderful almanac coming out in Canada, nearly four hundred pages, with colored maps, to be known as the Star Almanac, and to be published by the publishers of the MONTREAL DAILY and WEEKLY STAR. It is to be ready very shortly. So much has it been admired that the publishers have received security for the publication of fifty thousand copies.

A REMARKABLE OFFER.

Fifteen months of a large weekly paper, from 12 to 16 pages each issue, together with a splendid portrait, all for the sum of $1, seems a remarkable offer to make, but still it is made by the WISCONSIN WEEKLY TRIBUNE, the largest paper published in Manitoba and the Northwest. The WEEKLY TRIBUNE contains all the news of the week and has rapidly pushed to the front as the great family newspaper of this country. It is sent from the present time to the first of January, 1924, for $1.00—The balance of this year free. Every subscriber is given the choice of one of five magnificent portraits of the following: The late Hon. Alex. McKenzie, ex-premier of Canada; Sir John Caldwell Abbott, premier of Canada; Sir Oliver Mowat, premier of Ontario; Sir John Thompson, minister of justice and leader of the Government; Hon. Thos. Greenway, premier of Manitoba.
